Hee Haw! Whore House

Four (+ 1 audience participant)

15 – 20 minutes

Description The Hee Haw! Whore House captures the down home silly hillbilly spirit and warmth of rural America and is an original theme among London live entertainment acts. Cabaret meets Appalachia in Lisa Devaney's Hee Haw! Whore House, an Americana-slapstick comedy that will leave the audience a hooting 'n a hollering and begging the bar for a swig 'o moonshine.

Inspired by the hillbilly backwoods of the USA, there is a good 'ol time to be had at this hilarious whore house, and if you've only got pennies in your pocket, there are plenty 'o rock-bottom bargain bin prices on offer to help even the poorest of the po'folk leave with a smile on their face. As The Madam of the Hee Haw! Whore House, Lisa Devaney, delivers a rock 'n roll style comedy performance that gets even the most reserved of British spectators laughing and in the mood to hee haw! She's cast a talented group of performers for this act, including a beautiful burlesque dancer. Her production is packed with non-stop hilarity and action, even combining a pantomime chase scene through the audience.

What do people think of the show?

"It was a lot of fun, and was a real treat to see something this interactive and amusing on London's cabaret scene, where sometimes the acts are tired, and even the performers look bored, this cast provided enthusiastic, talented entertainment that really got the audience enjoying the night." –Anne-Fay Townsend, Pop Cultural Blogger, BigShinyThing.com

"I think this show will be a welcome addition to any event where the objective is to entertain audiences in a cabaret variety show line-up, or to enhance a music showcase night. It has a lot of potential for success in the London nightlife scene." –Kate Risker, Event Organizer for Cybersonica, Future of Sound, Glastonbury, Bloom, Reading, and more, missrisk.vox.com

Where can the Hee Haw! Whore House be booked?

The Hee Haw! Whore House makes a terrific warm-up for a music night, fits in well with any cabaret evening, and it can be adopted for nightlife or festival audiences. Budget depending, additional live music acts, such as a banjo player, a fiddler and a singer, are available for inclusion in the show.

Technical / Stage Requirements: 1 Chair | Sound system

NOTE: A white sheet will be supplied for the stage, and it has been made fire retardant, to club/pub venue specifications. The sheet offers the act a dual-purpose multimedia visual aspect, and is optional in the performance: to allow the creation of a shadowbox effect, and also to display original visuals of rural America. A projector, music, visuals, speakers and technician can be provided to run the visuals.

And there are even hats!

Yes, that's right, the Hee Haw! Whore House gets the audience involved, giving them adorable straw cowboy hats to wear. The organizers do kindly request that all pretend hillbillies and cowboys please leave their hats at the door, upon departure, so the cast can have props for future shows.

Background

This act was created as a result of the success of a White Trash Nativity skit that Lisa Devaney wrote and performed, at a Nativity Hoedown party held in December 2007 in Dalston, in front of 300 guests.
